CAO report to Council – CAO51-2025 Recommendation to Amend Procedural By-law 2024-49

PURPOSE:

To recommend that Council repeal and replace Procedural By-law 2024-49 to incorporate minor administrative updates and introduce a Committee of the Whole as part of Council's governance framework.

BACKGROUND:

Procedural By-law 2024-49 governs the calling, conduct, and proceedings of Council and its committees. Since its adoption, staff have identified a need to:

Introduce a Committee of the Whole to allow Council to consider matters in a less formal setting, facilitating discussion and information sharing prior to formal decision-making; and

Update certain dates related to submission and receipt of reports or information; and

Update agenda and report templates.

RECOMMENDATION:

Repeal Procedural By-law 2024-49 and any other by-laws inconsistent with the attached, updated procedural by-law; and

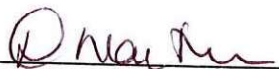

Adopt the updated Procedural By-law, which includes the introduction of a Committee of the Whole and the administrative updates described within it.

RATIONALE:

The proposed Committee of the Whole is intended to:

- Allow all members of Council to participate in detailed discussions in a less formal setting; and
- Provide an opportunity for early review of reports and recommendations; and
- Make preliminary recommendations to Council for formal decision-making.
- Minor amendments such as revised dates for submission of requests and reports and updated procedural references, ensuring alignment with current operational timelines. These changes are administrative in nature and are not intended to alter the statutory requirements under the Municipal Act, 2001.

The Municipal Act, 2001 does not require public notice for adoption of a procedural by-law. While the by-law will be made available to the public once adopted, no formal notice is required prior to Council consideration.

5. A proxy shall be revoked if the appointing member or the proxyholder
